Re: PR Docket No. 92-235

This Docket, as proposed, will necessitate replacement of hundreds of small mobile radio systems operated by agencies and entities this Chapter represents. Such massive capital expenditures will create an extreme economic hardship and, quite likely require making a choice between not having the needed communications capability or curtailing services currently provided to the Public. In most cases, resources which will permit both do not exist.

These licensees do not have technical personnel available to properly respond to the Docket. They are looking to the Chapter to comment in their behalf. The undersigned submits this letter at the request of the Chapter Board of Officers.

We have reviewed the document filed by ASSOCIATED PUBLIC SAFETY COMMUNICATIONS OFFICERS, INC. We support their more reasonable approach to resolution of the problems involved in
